In order to answer your question about T.C. Trevillion, son of Temple States Trevillion, first let me say that I do not agree with all of the info in "The Silver Horse". I do not understand why Hiram B. Trevilion stated that his father, Absolom Lafayette Trevilion, was the only child of the third marriage of Temple States Trevillion. If Absolom L. was born in 1825, there is no way that he was a child of the marriage of Temple States Trevillion and Martha Abigail Herlong. Now, I have to put my money where my mouth is, don't I? To do this, I have used the estates files of David and Mary Herlong, Martha Abigail's parents, the marriage record of TST and Martha Abigail, census records and the Bible record of David and Mary Herlong.

1. Marriage Book 4, page 10, Claiborne Co., MS, Dec. 17, 1835 - Martha A. Herlong to Temple State Trevillion

2. Bible Record of David and Mary Herlong - Temple States Travilion and Martha Abigail Herlong were married 19 Dec 1833

3. Estate Files of David and Mary Herlong - these files are a family researcher's dream. All of the heirs are named, even those who were living out of state.

   David and Mary Herlong had 12 children. Martha Abigail was the oldest child. She married first Temple S. Trevillian and second to Miles Lilly in 1846. David Herlong died in 1864 and Mary Herlong died in 1881. On 15 May 1891, in the final account of Mary's estate, it says, "daughter Martha Abigail, dead, who married first to Trevillian, who is dead, and had one son, T.C., who is also dead. T.C. Trevillian's descendents are: Ella Dungan, John Trevillian, Charles Trevillian and States Trevillian all of....Jefferson Co., and Jessie McCaa and Mattie Griffing....in Claiborne Co., MS." The account goes on to name the living heirs of Martha Abigail's married to Miles Lilly.

   On the 1850 Census for Madison Parish, LA is Miles and Martha Lilly. There are three Trevillian children in the household: Thomas C. age 15; Francis M., female age 13 and Mary E., female age 11. The two Trevillian girls could be other children Martha Abigail had with TST and were dead before 1891, therefore, not named in

In order to answer your question about T.C. Trevilixon, son of Temple Estes Trevilixon, first let me say that I do not agree with all of the info in "The River Horse". I do not understand why Pizam B. Trevilixon stated that his father, Absolom Lafayette Trevilixon, was the only child of the third marriage of Temple Estes Trevilixon. If Absolom L. was born in 1815, there is no way that he was a child of the marriage of Temple Estes Trevilixon and Martha Adigail Harlong. Now, I have to put my money where my mouth is, don't I? To do this, I have used the estates files of David and Mary Harlong, Martha Adigail's parents, the marriage record of TET and Martha Adigail, census records and the Bible record of David and Mary Harlong.

1. Marriage Book 4, page 16, Gilmore Co., MS, Dec. 17, 1833 - Martha A. Harlong to Temple Estes Trevilixon

2. Bible Record of David and Mary Harlong - Temple Estes Trevilixon and Martha Adigail Harlong were married 18 Dec 1833

3. Estate Files of David and Mary Harlong - These files are a family researcher's dream. All of the heirs are named, even those who were living out of state.

David and Mary Harlong had 12 children. Martha Adigail was the oldest child. She married first Temple E. Trevilixon and moved to Miles Ally in 1846.
David Harlong died in 1854 and Mary Harlong died in 1863. On 15 May 1861, in the final accounting of Mary's estate, it says, "daughter Martha Adigail, dead, was married first to Trevilixon, who is dead, and had one son, T.C., who is also dead. T.C. Trevilixon's descendants are: Alla Duncan, John Trevilixon, Charles Trevilixon and Estes Trevilixon all of.... Jefferson Co., and Jessie Moran and Maxie Griffing.... in Gilmore Co., MS." The account goes on to name the living heirs of Martha Adigail's married s= Miles Ally.

On the 1870 census for Madison Parish, LA is Miles and Martha Ally. There are three Trevilixon children in the household: Thomas G. age 15; Francis M., female age 12 and Mary E., female age 11. The two Trevilixon girls could be other children Martha Adigail had with TET and were dead before 1861, therefore, not named in Mary Herlong's estate. Thomas C., age 15 is the T.C. who was named in the estate.

The confusion lies in the fact that there was an older T.C. (Thomas Calvit) Trevillian, who married Diana Smith and who also lived in Claiborne Co., MS. This T.C. Trevillian was assigned as a son of TST in the book, but unless TST named two sons T.C., this older man cannot be TST's son.

On the 1850 Census for Claiborne Co., MS is Thos. C. and Diana Trevillion with children Ann, age 10 and Martha R., age 8. Another child of this couple was Calvin States, born 1843, died 1848. These three children are all buried in the Trevillian Cem. in Jeff. Co., MS.

I just can't explain what is in the book about Thomas Calvit Trevillion, son of TST. If anyone can give me proof that what is in the court records, estate files and Bible records is wrong or if I just interpreted them wrong, I have a very open mind when it comes to genealogy with proof.

Would you please give me the names and addresses of the two descendents whose copies of the book you saw. Also, I would like very much to have your group sheets on John Trevillion and Nancy Barnes and Hulda Trevillion and Mathias Willhoite.

Coincidently, if TST's will was written 24 Dec 1833, that was just after his marriage to Martha Abigail. If we can account for a son and 2 daughters in this marriage, that makes 10 children, leaving only 3 to account for as reported on page 214 of the book.

One thing for sure, if *P starts charging by the hour, I won't be putting this much on here. We'll just have to go back to the U.S. Postal Service.

Hi Julie and Warren,

I need to make a correction to the note I put on last night. After saving it, I realized that my finger slipped and the marriage date for Martha Abigail and TST is wrong. In item #1 it should read: 17 Dec 1833 (not 1835)
Thanks.....Melanie Nolan

I have spent the last 5 hours reading over the material you sent. I can not express to you how much I appreciate this information. Being descended from the last marriage of Absolom T. who died before my mother was born and because my grandfather, an only child, died while I was young I have not had much handed down about my heritage. Seeing your note on prodigy was my first chance to find out about the early Trevillions and what a find this has been. I have not yet began to fit it all together in my mind and need to chart it out. I dont know what software you might be using but I am looking at PAF and have just began to enter the info on Family Treasures, shareware. If you have not seen this software , it has the ability to incorporate family pictures scanned with a scanner and is neat. I am also just getting into the Miller family and have to work on the Buckley family(Ellen Buckley married E.E. Trevillion. I am new to this and have a lot to learn.

I did get Mildred Cavin's address, it is 126 Catalpa Drive Natchez, Ms, 39120 and her telephone number is 442-1244. As I told you she is Clarence Trevillions daughter and she is a wonderful person who will be glad to help you with any information she can. I am going to study the material you have sent much more but I think you are right Martha must have been married to the younger States Trevillion. Somehow in just what I have read I think you will find this branch in Louisiana. I am sure you have filtered this info to the hilt but if I gleam any ideas I will let you know. I want to see if I can find out about Eleanor wife of Absolom and will make a trip back to MS when I can. I will keep Martha in mind and will be on the lookout for information about this marriage. If I could get over I think I could find someone who has researched this or knows someone who is related. Mildred will probably give you someone else to contact but she is probably the best of the sources on Trevillions in that area.

I am still on prodigy for at least the next 6 months. I will send you my family information, though I dont know much about group sheets yet.

Thanks again for the information it was like stepping into my past. The letter from grandfather in the materials was a real treat. He was quite a historian from what I have been told- I wish I had known him more. My best to you and let me know how your search continues.

Melanie I wish I could help but I have not heard of William Miller. I have heard their was another "set" Trevillions who lived in the counties around Jefferson, but I don"t know anything about them. I can give you the name of a lady who might know. Her name is Mrs. Vernon Cavin(Mildred) who lives in Natchez, Ms. She is the daughter of Clarence Trevillion. She probably knows if anyone does if there are any other Trevillions in any of the counties surrounding Natchez. If she doesn't know she might give you a name of some other person who might give you some information. Wish I could help more. Brad in San Antonio.

I have searched he house but do not have a Natchez telephone directory. I will get her address and send it to you when I talk to someone that way. I don't want to send you on a wild goose chase but my aunt Lucy Trevillion who was a wife of Everett Edward Trevillion Jr had a brother or half-brother who was T.C. Trevillion. I really dont know how this fits together and dont want to say much more on this. I don't think this could be the other Trevillions. Her address i is Fairbanks, La. a small town outside Monroe, La. If you write her no street address needed she may know or can give you something on T.C.'s folks. Her I believe stepfather was a Roe. Also I know a lot of people in Natchez and if I can get my hands on a telephone directory I might be able to help you. One of our kids at college may have one and we will ask her to look up some addresses of people I think might help you. Also I have very little information about my ancestors and am new in the search. Anything you could send me would be greatly appreciated especially the information you mentioned.My address is 202 Tamworth Drive, San Antonio, Texas, 78213 Also I was late in the conversations you had with Warren and would be interested to know how you are related to the Trevillions so I can ask people I know when I get back to Natchez.

Thanks Brad, I am going to Monroe on Sunday. My husband's parents live there and his mother is having surgery on Monday. I just might try to contact your Aunt Lucy. I would appreciate any names of people you can give who might be helpful. To fill you in, Martha Abigail Herlong, a dau of my grgrgr grandparents, David and Mary Herlong married a Temple States Trevillion in 1833. There is a marriage record and it is recorded in David Herlong's Bible. Also, in The Silver Horse it says that she married the TST who was a son of Richard and Patty (Stots) Trevillion. This would have made TST much older than Martha Abigail. The estates settlement of Mary Herlong names all of her heirs and says that Martha A. married 1st to Trevillion and had a son named T.C. Trevillion. It then goes on say that he is dead and names his living descendants. This estate settlement was in 1895 I believe. Anyway, when you compare the estate settlement with The Silver Horse, it is apparent that the children of this younger T.C. Trevillion are attributed to the older T.C. Trevillion who married Diana Smith. It is so confusing. These are not even my direct ancestors. I am descended from Martha Abigail's sister, Catherine who married Calvin Henry Phillips. However, I am trying to write a little history of David and Mary Herlong and would like to have the story right on Martha Abigail. So, if you ask anybody about it, you can say that it was Martha Abigail who was dau of David and Mary Herlong of Claiborne Co., MS who married Temple States Trevillion in 1833 and then Miles Lilly in 1846. The T.C. Trevillion who is said to be son of Martha A. and TST named one of his sons States (probably the full name was Temple States). Thanks for your address. I will send you a copy of the pages from the book. If you use one of the LDS family history from Salt Lake City. I plan to order it again because I got busy and ended up letting it go back before I was through. Also, you can order a lot of the Jefferson Co., MS and Claiborne Co., MS court records from Salt Lake City at the family history centers also. It is a wonderful way to look at deeds, will, etc. without going to the courthouses, which, if you're like me, don't have much of a chance to do. What are some of your other names that you are researching. Since you "sprang" from the same part of MS as a lot of mine ancestors, maybe we have others in common. I have been at this since 1981, and while I haven't solved all my mysteries, I have collected a lot of info.

So long.....Melanie Nolan

Melanie after thinking about it I am sure Aunt Lucy's half brother was J.P. Mc Knight instead of T.C.Trevillion. When I saw T.C. in the messages and the name Calvin I guess I just miscued. However Aunt Lucy may be able to tell you where she got the name Calvin for my first cousin. She will be glad to talk to you and I know she has at least heard of the other "set" of Trevillions but I dont know how much she will know. Mildred Cavin in Natchez is still your b best bet. I am an attorney and have run land titles in Claiborne and Jefferson Counties. I practiced in Liberty, Amite County for a number of years. If I get back to that area on a vacation I plan to go back into the records. I should have done it when I had the opportunity.I will keep you notes and be on the watch for some of your ancestors. I was in Natchez last summer when my mother died but dont know when I will get back. My grandfather was Henry Miller married to Mary Elizabeth Hardy. I am just starting on this tree. Thanks, I will check with your Aunt Lucy. Do you know Mildred Cavin's address in Natchez? You keep talking about the other "set" of Trevillions. Do you think this other "set" could be the children and their descendants of Martha A. Herlong and her Trevillion husband. I sat an d read everything I had on Trevillion last night and didn't come to any new conclusions, except that the author of The Silver Horse did not use the avaiable public records, such as census and court) to determine who the children of Thomas C. Trevillion, TST's oldest son, were. You will see what I mean when you receive the info I am sending.

By the way, our daughter Angela is a student at Baylor and will be starting law school here in Houston at South Texas in August.

Since we are leaving to go to Monroe in the morning, and won't be back before Thursday next, I will not be checking Prodigy for a few days. Why don't you hold off answering this until then so I won't miss it.

It sounds like to me you may be right about Martha marrying Temple States Jr since you have the estate records that she married a Temple States and it does not seem likely at this point it was the older man. I sure wish I knew more about the other "set" of Trevillions I have heard off and on all my life but I don't.
I was just like your daughter and got tired of Waco and went to Ole Miss to law school. I don't really practice law I am the managing attorney for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in San Antonio and manage a legal staff of attorneys and paralegal support. Our managing attorney at the FDIC office in Houston went to South Texas school of Law and so did my boss. I hear it is a very good law school. I have not heard of the O'Quinn lawfirm, but from my experience it helps to work at a firm while in school. When I look at resumes of attorneys looking to work for us I te nd to favor those students who show a w k history while in school. It says to me they either had to work to get through school or were very ambitious. We probably won't move from prodigy either but will use it less. My wife was hard enough to get to use this program and I don't think she will go for another.
Let me know how you search continues. I appreciate your sending the material. We did ask our daughter about the Natchez i directory and she did not still have it but we will talk to someone back that way before too long.

I have been out of town for a few days and Just got your note. I am glad you got to talk to my aunt and sorry see did not know more. I didn't think she would but I thought she would have heard of some other Trevillions. I have not had a chance to get Mildred Cavins phone no in Natchez, but I still think she would know more about the Trevillions in that part of the country. She was raised in Wilkinson Co and Adams Co. and has lived there all her life. I think I mentioned on one occasion that there is a Trevillion in Kissemee Fl who has researched the Trevillions back to England. I think he was a former Mayor and I know he came to Natchez to Mildred's house and met with some of the Trevillions including my mother and Mildred's father Clarence Trevillion. I did not meet him and don't know more but Mildred would. I was told by my mother that the Trevillion name was changed at some point and I think she said he thoug t it was originally Trevlyn - I think. I will get her address and phone number and send it to you. My wife has talked to her daughter but has failed to ask if she has a Natchez phone book.
My address is 202 Tamworth Drive, San Antonio, Tx,78213.
Also when you talk to her there is an attorney Bob Netterville - I don't know if he is still living who knows a lot of people in that part of the country and has run land titles. Attorneys in Jeffer son Country are another good place to look. There were some Trulys who practiced there for a long time, they generally know most everyone history.

I am glad to hear you daughter is going to a fine school at Baylor. I received my B.A. from Baylor in 1967. Hope to send one to Baylor- My wife's daughter just graduated UT Austin and one is at Miss. State but I am hopeful- we have 2 more.

I will get back when I get Mildred's address. Would you send me your address in case we move from Prodigy with all the talk about rate increases.

"The Silver Horse" is a record of the Trevillions, written by Robbins, published in 1969. I do not have a copy - only some duplicated pages. There is a copy in the VA State Library, and some descendants own copies.

Your ancestry may be: John (to America from England 1664) - John b. in VA 1694 - Thomas - Richard d. 1800 MS - Absalom Lafayette 1825-1910 - Everett E.

Melanie, the information regarding the children of Temple States Trevillion, Sr. and Martha Herlong is interesting.

Do you have a copy of the will of TST Sr.? I do. TCT b. 1809 was the executor of his father's will, as was John T. - the gg grandfather of Warren. At the time of the death of TST, Sr. John was living in AR and declined to be an executor.

It is odd that TST Sr. in his will provided only for the children of his first two wives, and did not write a later will.

Will mail the family group sheets next week.

Yes, Melanie, we are familiar with the book "The Silver Horse". I have been unable to find a copy to purchase, but have seen three - NC State Library, a Sulphur Springs, TX "cousin" descendant of Temple States' son John, and a Natchez, MS descendant of Absalam.

"The Silver Horse" gives the marriage date of Martha A. HERLONG and Temple States TREVILLION as 17 Dec 1833.

Warren's line: son of Oto WILLHOITE, son of Wm. A. WILLHOITE, son of Mathias WILLHOITE and Hulda TREVILLION, daughter of John TREVILLION and Nancy ~~BARNES~~ BURNS, son of Temple States TREVILLION and Helen NEVELS.

"The Silver Horse" p. 189 names Thomas Calvit TREVILLION b. 1805(?), who married Diana SMITH 9 Feb 1839 in Monroe LA. 1860 census Claiborne Co. MS, Port Gibson, lists him as Planter.

p. 207 - "Absalam Lafayette TREVILLION, b. 23 Jul 1825 in Jefferson Co. MS, last son of Temple States TERVILLION and his wife Eleanor ..." (named wife of TST in 1818 land transaction).

The will of TST (b. 1771, died abt 1845 ,will proved 1847) was written 24 Dec 1833, and names seven children.

You may have all this. I do not know the name Abigail.

So - when was T. C. TREVILLION that you mentioned as son of Temple States TREVILLION and Martha HERLONG born?

Hello Warren, For some reason your note disappeared so I opened TREVILLION again. TREVILLION is not a direct line of mine, but the sister of one of my ancestors married Temple States TREVILLION in 1833 in Claiborne Co., MS. Her name was Martha Abigail HERLONG and she was the daughter of David and Mary HERLONG. Temple States was very much older than Martha and did not live long after their marriage. They did have one son, T.C. TREVILLION. Even though they are not directs, I also do collaterals and have attempted to put together a Herlong family history.

You said that you have info on early TREVILLIONS. Do you have The Silver Horse? I ordered it through the LDS FHC here and copied some of the pages. Had to let it go back before I could get more. I do notice that one of Temple States TREVILION's daughters was named Huldah, by one of his other wives I suppose. He married 3 times. Since this Huldah was born earlier than 1844, your Huldah must have been named for her.

Do you see any connection with my TREVILLIONs and yours. I would really like to exchange information with you.

Thanks.....Melanie Nolan in Humble, Texas

Hi. We are out here but we are few and far between. My line is; JAMES THOMAS MCCAA b. Nov. 12, 1852 married LENORA ELLEN TREVILLION b. Dec. 7, 1851. They are my Greatgrandparents. Her parents are; ABSALOM LAFAYETTE TREVILLION and ISABELLA LEEDS MCCAA. His parents are; TEMPLE STOTS (STATES) TREVILLION and MARINA S. HORNSBY. His parents are; RICHARD tREVILLION and PATSY STOTS. James Thomas McCaa and Lenora Ellen Trevillion are first cousins. I have some other info I got from a cousin in Calif. Glad to have more family aboard. For 14 years I thought I was the only one looking.

FROM ENGLAND TO AMERICA

Compiled by Ray A. Trovillion, of Winter Park, Florida, from personal research of family and legal records, in collaboration with the late Hal Weeden Trovillion (of Illinois) who first became interested in The TREVILLIAN HISTORY in 1933. To him is due much of the credit for the early English data, obtained on his trips to Cornwall and England, accompanied by his wife, Violet.

The compiler wishes to THANK the following, for their assistance ;- Mrs. Mary Trovillion Musgrave of Harrisburg, Ill.; Ezra "Bud" Trovillion Jr. of St. Petersburg, Fla.; Eunice T. Abell of Vienna, Ill.; Eva Raber of Lawrence, Kansas; Mrs. Floy Neesman, of Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. Lillie Trovillion Fishel of Scottsdale, Ariz.; Mrs. Wm. TREVILLIANS (IONS) in North Carolina & South Carolina and in Tennessee and also in MISSISSIPPI -

From "The History of GRANVILLE County, North Carolina" Asheville N.C. Library -

#69 - JAMES TREVILLIAN and #70 - JOHN TREVILLIAN are on the Muster-Roll of Colonial Regiment in Granville County, N. Carolina, under the command of Col. William Eaton, October 8th, 1751.

These two men are sons of Thomas Trevillian of Hanover County, Va. We know because we find the Deed of James Travillian, of the County of Granville, N.C. to Thomas Travillian Jr. of St. Martins Parish, Hanover Co. Virginia. Date 23, Sept. 1751.

There seemed to be an influx of Virginians moving to Granville Co. N.C. to take advantage of lands offered for sale by the Earl of Granville. We find Richard Henderson, of Hanover Co. Va., who married Mary (Polly) Washer, a daughter of Ensign Washer, who was a member of the House of Burgesses which met at Jamestown 1619.

Richard Henderson's children were:- 1- Edmund
2- Samuel born about 1700. 3- Nathaniel 4- Leonard Henderson;
5- ? Jane, she married Wm. (or Joab) Trovyllion and moved to South Carolina. Another record shows Jane Henderson married a Thomas Travillion and moved to Pacolet, S. Carolina.

Samuel Henderson, b. in Hanover County, Va. 1700, died 1783; was at one time High Sheriff of Hanover County. In 1745, he moved with his family to Granville County, N.C. and became Sheriff of that County. In 1743 he married Elizabeth Williams, whose father was from Wales.

We find that after the marriage to Henderson lady, we found a Hiram Henderson Travillion in Jefferson County, Tenn. and in Fayette Co., Mississippi, we find Hiram Henderson Travillion and Temple States (his father) making a deed to James Mitchell. Mitchells were in N. Carolina.

Another record which ties Hanover County, Va. to Granville Co., N.C. is the 1762 record of STEPHEN Terry of St. Martins Parish, Hanover County did deed for "love and affection which he bears for his sons, James Terry and Rowland Terry" lands in Granville County N.C. some 400 acres of land, houses, orchards, gardens and woods; to be divided among them. Witness: Thomas Doswell and John Doswell & Wm. Byars.

It is to be noted that Thomas Trevillion married Sophia Terry in Hanover County and did name one of their sons STEPHEN. They had eleven other sons and daughters, from which was descended the many branches that we find now spread from Virginia to North Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Arkansas, Illinois, Michigan, and a scattering in Montana, California and S. Dakota.

From William and Jane Henderson Trevillion, came Joab Trevillion, who was born in South Carolina, - according to a Dalton Ga. Census Report (1860). JOAB along with his cousin, Richard fought in the Revolutionary War, joining the Coon-skin mountaineers of Jack Sevier. They fought in the Battle of King's Mountain. In Sept. 1971, I obtained a Photostatic copy of Land Grant from the State of South Carolina for 300 acres of Land on Loves Creek, a branch of Bullocks Creek in Camden District (later changed to York District). He later sold this land and moved to Jefferson or Greene County, Tenn. In 1910, his widow, Sarah King, - now Sarah Trevillion filed for a Pension, Claim #13,279 from York Co. S. Carolina. It was never completed, therefore never granted.

Note: See copy of Deed in these records.

AN IMPORTANT EVENT and DATE:- to all Mississippi TREVILLIONS

Rowan County Records, Salisbury Court House, N. Carolina.
Personally discovered by Ray A. Trovillion in 1953.
January 14, 1768. RICHARD TREVELLION married PATTY STOTS.

Note:- And here is where the name, Temple STATES (Stots) came from. Whether Patty STOTS was of French descent or of the Cherokees has not been determined. There were no STOTS of record in Rowan County.

1772 - From Ramsey's "Annals of Tennessee", published 1853.
Land of the Cherokees on the Nollichucky River, near Greenville Tenn. mountains, settled by Jacob Brown with two families, - (quote) "The writer (Ramsey) has a Deed of conveyance now before him, from Jacob Brown to RICHARD TRIVILLIAN, FOR 240 ACRES of land lying on the south side of the river, - Nollichucky. The consideration is 100 pounds and the title is not a fee simple, but a relinquishment on the part of the grantor. A transfer of land was made in the most simple mode. Upon the back of the deed from Brown, is endorsed:- 'For value received, 85 ₤, I do assign all my right, claim land and interest of the within deed, unto George Gillespie, as Witness my hand and Seal, 1772-'74 - To His Excellency JOSIAH MARTIN, Esq., His Majesties Capt. General, Gouvenor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Province of North Carolina, His Majesties Honorable Council and House of Burgesses:

The Petition of the inhabitants of the upper settlement of the Catawba River, Yadkin River and Three Creeks Humbly Showeth:-
That, we your humble Petitioners being part of the Great County of Rowan and near 140 miles from Salisbury, - our present seat of Justice and never has had the opportunity of having an Magistrate yet in our Settlement so that we can recover Small Debts without infinate trouble and cost, - which said distance is chiefly attended by several dangerous Waters and Many other bad properties which puts our Settlement to many disadvantages, and this being the third time, we have Petitioned for a COUNTY.

Petition for a new County - to the English Gouvernor - Josiah Martin:

We therefore Most Humbly Beg your Excellency and Honours would take this our necessity into your Prudent Considerations and Grant us a Separate County Agreeable to a Separate County Agreeable to a former Petition Viz:-

Beginning at Beaty's Ford, where Tryon Line crosses the Catawba River, then running up the south side of said River to the mouth of Lower Little River, then straight Course to the Mulberry Fields upon the Yadkin River, from thence a North Course to the top of the Blue Ridge (mountain), from thence along the top of said mountain to where the TRYON Line crosses the said mountain, then down the said Line to the Beginning, which will contain one hundred (100) miles in length and sixty (60) miles wide, - chiefly thick settled, and as we conceive fully able to Support a County, as we allow we have at this time about 2000 Taxables and better, and your Petitioners, Duty bound will ever Pray."

Signed:-	RICHARD TRAVILLION	Hugh McDowell	Samuel Young
	JOHN TRAVILLION	Chas. McDowell	John Witherspoon
	JOAB TRAVILLION	John McDowell	& others.

Note:- It is sufficient to say that, the Petition was never granted, mainly because of the Revolutionary War, but in 1777, Burke County was formed out of Rowan County. Later Wilkes County out of Burke. After the War ended, in 1789, North Carolina ceded the present State of Tennessee to the U.S.A. which in 1790 was organized as "The Territory of the United States, South of the Ohio River". And then the State of Franklin was founded by a group of settlers, headed by John Sevier - (whose ancestors were French Huguenots, who came down from Virginia). This area was from the Knoxville (Blount Co.) east to the Blue Ridge and Smoky Mountains.

Richard was one of the lucky ones to get paid for his service with the Coon-skin cap soldiers, who came across the Blue Ridge Mountains through Gillespie Gap near Spruce Pine and Little Switzerland to join the fighting McDowells, Witherspoons and Seviers in the Battle of Cowpens and Kings Mountain. The above pay was late coming to them, and many a pioneer soldier never did get paid for his his service, in the Revolutionary War. JOAB TREVILLION was one of these, - his application for Pension was never completed, but he did receive a Land Grant from the State of South Carolina, namely 300 acres of Plantation in York County Camden District, on Love's Creek, a branch of Bullock's Creek for the small consideration of Seven Pounds (7 Ł) A copy of this deed attached.
Note:- This deed executed Jan. 21, 1785, was found by the writer in the Archives Library in Columbia, S.C. in Sept. 1971. Also a Map.

The JOAB TREVILLION branch will be under a separate heading.

RICHARD TREVILLION MOVES TO MISSISSIPPI - 1788

In 1788, RICHARD TREVILLION loaded his family on barge or boat and floated down the Tennessee River, the largest tributary of the Ohio River. Everett E. Trevilion, of Wilkinson, Miss. wrote:- "By a Historical event, I think that I can establish the date that the Trevilions started to Mississippi, as they were in a fight with Indians at Muscle Shoals, on the Tennessee River." Anyhow there was no turning back after this experience, so they entered the Ohio River near present day Paducah, Ky., then on to the Father of waters - the mighty Mississippi.

They landed at Rodney, Miss. and settled in the forks of Coles Creek. Malaria was so bad that they moved to Red Lick, Jefferson County, Miss. Here they received Grants of Land from the Spanish in this New Spain. Copies of these grants are pictured in this volume.

There are three letters that I would publish here, which are dated Jan. 18, 1900 from Rev. Hiram B. Trevilion; another dated July 24, 1937 from Everett E. Trevilion and the letter of John Clarence Trevilion of Natchez, Miss. dated May 15, 1969 to Mrs. Loyce Smith Robbins, of New Albany, Miss. *

* Here and now, I, Ray Trovillion, would like to pay tribute to this fine lady. I have never personally met her but have talked by phone to her. Her many fine letters and materials for the Trevillion History have been wonderful. She has put in print the very first Trevillion History in her RIDE BACK IN HISTORY, WITH "SMITH, TEXADA, TREVILLION AND CULPEPPER", photostated in November 1969. As a Geneologist, she is TOPS! Many of the items and data about the TREVILLION Branch of Mississippi come from her Book. I thank her for the use of same. Ray Trovillion.

P.S. At last on Oct. 7, we met this lovely lady! 1973.

Historical letter of 1900.

Fernwood, Miss. Jan. 18, 1900.

Mr. Penn V. Trovillion, (Son of E. E. "Uncle Ned" Trovillion.)
Golconda, Ill.

Dear Sir, Your letter of the 10th Inst., was forwarded me from Columbia, Miss. I do not know if you are aware that I am a Methodist preacher and was moved by our conference to this place, viz Fernwood, Pike County, Miss.

I think possibly, - yes probably we are all of the same parent stock. I give first the history of the TREVILION family as far as I know it, and then the traditions.

My grandfather, Temple States (Stots) Trevilion came from Virginia (he was born in N. Carolina, now East Tennessee), thence down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers in a flat boat to Jefferson County, Miss. in, I think, 1804. (Actually 1788.) He settled in that County among the very early settlers of that portion of Miss., and was a Physician. And my father, ABSALOM LAFAYETTE TREVILION was the youngest of 13 children, eleven of whom were boys. My father was the only son of Temple States Trevilion's third and last marriage and father nursed old Grandfather in his old age and was his daily companion, for grandfather's last wife died when my father was an infant and he talked much to my father about the family history. His story was that the Trevelions in France were Huguenots and left France because of religious persecutions shortly after St. Bartholomews Massacre.* (This Massacre of Huguenots was on Aug. 24, 1572, even before the founding of Virginia. It might have been that they fled, before the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685.)

He said originally the name was spelled with two L's, but the family was divided during the Revolutionary War, and some were Tories and after the war, the patriots dropped one "L", spelling the name Trevilion. That in brief is the tradition, that we now have and believe and tell others. Family names with us have been, Temple, States (Stots), Hiram, John and Thomas.

Some years ago, in some magazine history of the Civil War, I noticed a TREVILLIAN station in Virginia, but the geographical location was not given. (Note - It is in Louisa County, just 10 miles from the old Trevillian homestead.)

I know nothing of any other branch of the Trevillions except the descendants of my Grandfather, as he brought the name to this section and all of us here descended from him. However nearly all of my father's brothers, all except two, left no male issue. Uncle John went to Texas, died there and left some boys. Another Uncle, John Thomas, has grandchildren in Louisiana. I have one brother, S. M. (States Monroe) at Union Church, Miss. and another at Sankum, Miss. and his name is Edward Everette T.

If you have the good fortune to make any discoveries about the family name or tribe, please write me as I am anxious to find out. If I had known there was a man at Golconda so near the family name, I would have written you long ago. I am a member of the Mississippi Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South; I am fifty years old and have three children, the youngest 20 years old.

Yours very Respectfully,
Hiram B. Trevilion

P.S. I have been among the Louisiana French considerable and they claim me as French on hearing my name.

Letter No. 2 - By Everett E. Trevilion to Ray A. Trovillion
Written on stationary of J. C. Trevilion, "Lumber"
Wilkinson, Miss. July 24, 1937.

Dear Kinsman,

I am glad that you met my niece - Ezma Trevilion of Kissimmee, Fla. - and are well pleased with her. I am interested in this matter. My grandfather, RICHARD TREVILION - (he was actually his Great grandfather) (His grandfather was Temple States T.) immigrated from Louisa County, Virginia. (Correction:- He came from Jefferson County, Tenn. then a part of North Carolina, where he had married Patty Stots, Jan. 1768.) He came by boat in 1788. I do not know but two of his children, Mahalia and Temple States Trevillion. THIS STATES IS PRONOUNCED "STOTS" in French. These two names are family names; Richard had twelve brothers and some sisters. States Trevillion fought under Andrew Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans as Surgeon's Mate; do not know what is meant by the Mate. My grandfather was fifty years old when my father was born; also he was thirteen years old when he came to this country (Miss.). The three of us cover 162 years. You are correct about Joab; he was the man who came over from France; we were French Huguenots. (Note:- I had repeated in my letter that Uncle Knox Trovillion had told that - "we were given 10 days to flee the realm, and Joab came with Huguenots to Virginia".)

The Holy Roman Catholic Church confiscated his Estate and ordered him to leave France within 10 days. He went down to a seaport called Havre with the intention of sailing to the Indies, but there was no vessel sailing at the time, but he found one sailing to Jamestown, Va. So to Virginia he went and according to an old manuscript, he settled on the Potomac.

Letters of Mississippi TREVILIONS - Cont'd.

You mentioned Edward Trovillion; one of the twelve brothers was of that name a Captain in the Revolutionary War. (Note:- My Edward T. was a son of James T. and a grandson of Capt. Thomas Trevillian.) I do not think Joab came over with the immigrants you mentioned unless..... I never heard the name mentioned only around Petersburg, Va. He lived on the old Jerusalom plank road or near it.... The Trevylions or Trevelyans of England I have heard it said and the French Trevilions were of the same family. There is a book Protestanism of Mississippi that gives a history of Trevillions, but I don't know where to get it.

I think by a historical event, I can establish the date that the Trevillions came to Miss. as they were in a fight with the Indians at Muscle Shoals, Tenn. There were two brothers (??) and a sister that came with Richard Trevillion; this sister lived to be 111 years old. My father - Absolom L. Trevilion could remember her and he was born July 22, 1825. Unless the Texida's (Texadas) pronounced Tamahalia-Spanish - they were Mahaley's children or descendants. It may be that we could get some information from that source, as records of our family have been destroyed in two or three fires. Any assistance that I could give, I will gladly do.

Dr. C. E. Trovillion wrote a letter (which is herein published) to Mississippi and was forwarded to my father and my father said that the Illinois Trevillions were descendants from those 12 brothers and mentioned the names of all 12, and also mentioned Edward Trevillion being a Captain in the Revolutionary War and I think you will find these 12 brothers were the grandsons of Joab Trevillion. (Research by the writer did not establish this as fact.) (See Joab T. section)

My father, Dr. Absolom Lafayette Trevillion was a Doctor and a Baptist preacher. We will be glad to hear from you whether you find anything new or not.

No doubt your kinsman, E. E. Trevillion.

F.S. I will give you the names of States Trevillion's children; he had 12 children, the oldest Dr. Tom Trevillion was born 1805; Dr. John Trevillion; another Doctor, went to Texas, but I can't recall his name; Dr. Hiram Trevillion taught languages, he spoke seven languages, as plain as English; Phillip Trevillion was a planter; Temple Trevillion Jr. was a planter; Absalom Lafayette, my father; I give you these names as they might give a little light, for names behind. (In pencil) These two brothers that came to Miss. were in the Revolutionary War, also Richard. Note: (We have not found the name of the other brother.)

A Letter to Tom Trevillion, Red Lick, Miss. From Dr. C. E. Trovillion

Metropolis, Ill. April 12, 1901.

Dear Sir,

I met Mr. A. P. McAlpin the other day and he told me that he had a cousin by marriage, by the name of Tom Trevillion, and as that was our original way of spelling our name, I think you must be of the same family. We first spelled our name just like you do, then we spelled it Travillion, and now we spell it Trovillion. There have been three Tom Trevillions to my own personal knowledge. (Note:- Most popular name.)

Now, Mr. Trevillion what I want is to give you a little of our family history and see if we can find out anything about whether or not we belong to the same family. Our family went from Albemarle County to Wilson County, Tenn., and to this state fifty or more years ago.

Letters of Mississippi TREVILIONS - Cont'd.

Now I will give you some of the family characteristics, - proud, (but not vain), my grandfather was a very large man, being over six feet, 5 1/2 inches tall; dark complected and black hair, straight as an Indian's, weight about 200 pounds. His sons (my father and Uncles) were all dark, full of energy and ambition, religious (in belief and practice) were all Baptist. My grandfather's name was James Yancey Treyvillion; my father's name was Daniel Parker. My Uncles were named as follows:- Tom, Jerry, Knox, Newton. James Y. married Betty Maddox in Tenn.

Another thing now that seems to be almost a family characteristic and that is Preachers and Doctors; there are now four Doctors and three Preachers. I hope that I have not annoyed you, but hope this may be a source of satisfaction to you, and I earnestly hope that you may be able to give me some light on the subject.

Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience,

I am yours very truly,

C. E. Trovillion (Carlos Edward) M.D.

Writer's Note:- From the three letters presented, we find quite a similarity between the Illinois group and the Mississippi group, especially in the occupations, such as the many Doctors and Preachers, as well as planters and farmers. In the 19th century, we find the Doctors to be, - "Long" Ed Trovillion who went to Boulder, Colo. from Pope County, Ill.; C. E. (above), his brother, Jerry Allen T. (the writer's father) and Milo H. Trovillion. All of these were born in Pope County, Ill. * The preachers of that day were Edward Elijah Trovillion - (and he is the Gent who changed the spelling of the name to TRO villion); then there was Uncle James Knox Polk Trovillion and to his honor that this book is dedicated; and Uncle John Trovillion, preacher-planter.

In Mississippi, there was Absalom L. Trevillion who was a Doctor and Baptist Preacher; then Dr. Tom Trevillion; and Dr. John Trevillion and another Doctor went to Texas. From the marriage of Deborah Ann Trevillion to John Smith came an avalanche of Doctors, namely:-

Sons of John & Deborah T. Smith were: Dr. Hiram Trevilion Smith
2. Dr. Peter High Smith; 3. Dr. Oliver Brown Smith

Grandsons:- Dr. Charles Sidney Smith; 2. Dr. Hugh Angus Smith

Great Grandsons:- 1. Richard Posey Price; 2. Harry Smith Price;
3. Theron
A. Grant - all Doctors of Medicine

Great-Great Grandsons:- Dr. Mark A. Price; 2. Dr. Fred Lane Price

Then there is a Doctor or two in the Mahalia-Trevillion-Texada family. Of the Mississippi Preachers, Hiram Trevilion, a Methodist, stands out.

* In the Illinois-Trevillion section read about the Cradle of Doctors.

There is one more letter that gives expression and opinion about our Trevillion family and its origin in America, from our good Mississippi kinsman, who is of the writer's own generation, of the year 1969. This letter was a reply to the inquiry of our Miss. Geneologist, Mrs. Loyce Smith Robbins, which relates the elusiveness of the writer.

128 Catalpa Dr., Natchez, Miss. 5/15/1969.

Dear Mrs. Robbins,

Your welcome letter of the 9th received, but I am not able to give Ray Trevillion's address. He does live sometime in Winter Park, Florida and sometime in Atlanta, Ga. and sometime in South (should be North) Carolina. I myself have been trying to get in personal contact with him but when I was in Florida, he was in Atlanta and when I was in Atlanta he was in South Carolina, so I missed him all the time.

He did come to our house some 4 or 5 years ago (it was 10 years), but there were so many people asking him things, I didn't get all out of him that I wanted; but he has done a lot of research and knows more about the Family Tree than I know. He has been to England and France (Note - Error: 'Twas Hal W. Trovillion who made these trips) and also in Virginia where Trevillians first landed in America. Now if you will write my sister in Florida, she will probably know where he is. Her address is, Mrs. M. E. Shellinburg, Old St. Cloud Road, Kissimmee, Fla.

I am 78 years old and have run a sawmill and planer mill all my life. I can remember my grandfather that was in his 80's, but I was young then and didn't realize that at his death, that the door would be closed. The most of the Trevillion ? formation thing come from Ray. He told me that they were some of the "Arostich of England and Wales" and when Cromwell ruled England that the family were divided, some for Cromwell and some for King Charles and when Charles II, became King, they on the outside, went to France to save their necks. But they did not stay there but a short time till Louis XIV forced them out or become Catholics; so they came to Virginia and they settled in Louise County. There is a small town by that name (Trevillians).

Now this I got from my Grandfather, - two brothers left there and came through the Carolinas to the Tennessee River and come down in a flat boat to the Ohio River and they parted, - Ray's family moved to Illinois and my foreparents on down the Mississippi to Rodney and settled in the forks of Coles Creek, but malaria so (bad) moved to Jefferson County, near Red Lick. Our set that come down the Miss. river, was Thomas and his son Richard and his son. My great grandfather was States (Temple States). Now States was married three times and had seven sons. My grandfather was the youngest by his third wife. All the other Trevillions must have come from my grandfather's older brothers, but all that I have talked to, cannot trace it back to which one they came from. By the way my grandfather was named Absalom (Lafayette) and was born in 1825 and died in 1910. I might be able to dig up some of my first Uncles names. Now all of this was handed down to me; I have no record of it.

Now for me I have no brothers but have four sisters, one dead. I have four sons and two daughters. And on March 24th, 1967, I lost my dear wife and am living with my children. However, I saved a little nest egg and do not depend on them for my support.

Thanks for writing; anything you may want that I know, will be glad to do so. I am old and nervous and do not write a good hand as you but hope you can make it out without too much aspirin for your headache. Hope you can get in touch with Ray.

Your distant cousin,

J. C. Trevillion (John Clarence)

Letters of Mississippi TREVILIONS - Cont'd.

P.S. Ray has a copy of the Coat of Arms that I also would like to have.

Note:- A copy of the Coat of Arms was sent to him and his daughter-in-law Carlotta Trevillion (Mrs. Gene) has reproduced several in Decapoge.

J. C. Trevillion in his letter above says that a Thomas Trevillion came with Richard Trevillion. We have searched the records in Colonial Rowan County, North Carolina but have found no Thomas there or in East Tennessee, that might have come with Richard.

The MOST REVEALING RECORD FOR THE MISSISSIPPI BRANCH WAS THE RECORD OF RICHARD TREVILLION'S Marriage to PATTY STOTS in January 1768, found by Ray Trovillion in Salisbury, Rowan County, Courthouse. Ca 1953.

RICHARD TREVILLION

Born - about 1748 in Hanover County, Virginia
Died about 1800 in Mississippi Territory
Buried in Jefferson County, Miss.

He married:- PATTY (or Martha) STOTS* January 14, 1768. "Patsey"
On Record in Salisbury, Rowan County, North Carolina
Date of birth not known. She died in Jefferson Co., Miss. 18__

*A search for other members of the STOTS family have been futile.

Richard Trevillion served in the Revolutionary War with a cousin, Joab, and they were in the Battle of King's Mountain, S. C. and received a Pension. See the record of pay as recorded in North Carolina State Library, in Raleigh. This record will qualify descendants for Daughters of the Revolution. (See exact record on previous page.)

Richard first bought land in Mississippi 6, August, 1783.
Natchez Court Records, - 1767-1805, Vol. II, Page 20 - Book A, page 143

Mrs. McBee's Natchez Records-- Vol. 11, page 219, states that Richard Trevillion and wife, Patsy (Patty) are witnesses for Winnie Ryan. It says that they knew her in North Carolina (present East Tennessee) twelve or thirteen years earlier. Dated July 19, 1794. They migrated to Rodney, Miss. via flat-boat in 1788.

The same Natchez Records - Vol. II, page 524, No. 783 says in the abstract that Richard died in 1800.

Richard and Patty's daughter, Deborah Ann Trevillion was born in Mississippi. (1850 Louisiana Census Record)

All of the recorded TREVILLIONS of Mississippi are descendants of Richard Trevillion. They spilled over into Louisiana and Texas; rather than from Louisiana into Mississippi as has been often stated.

Louisiana Spanish regime. His plantation 20 miles north of Natchez, Miss. was across the Cole's Creek from Richard Trevillion, who had just arrived from East Tennessee. Texada courted Mahalah, Richard's oldest daughter and they were married when Natchez was growing very fast as hundreds of colonials migrated to the south.

Much history transpired here. One feels as though he stepped back into history when reading these true events of "Old Natchez". It gives the sentiments of "Lavender and Old Lace", and "When Knighthood was in Flower." Romantic old Natchez brings visions of moonlight, magnolias and the delicate flavor of lilac and jasmine. The young men were gallant and brave. The young ladies were cultured and lovely beyond comparison.

(Writer's note) Old Natchez is a unique old southern city, which the wife and I have visited twice during the Annual Natchez Festival, held during March of each year. The Pageant is beautiful. It is a MUST! Mahalah's old TEXADA TAVERN - now owned by Dr. & Mrs. Moss, is being restored and will be added to the Tour Lists. It dates back to 1792.

The following article, Texada's Tavern is the history of Manuel Texada and his family. This article is by Mrs. W. A. Geisenberger, who read it before the Mississippi Historical Society in 1956. A fine work.

V 2. TEMPLE STATES TREVILLION, b. in N. Carolina now East Tennessee. born April 15, 1771; died 1845 in Jefferson Co., Miss.
He was married three times, the first time to:-
1 - Nelly Nevels, 23, Nov. 1807. Bondsmen, - Temple States and his brother, Abner Trevillion; Marriage Book "A" 1805-'27. Jefferson County Courthouse, Fayette, Miss. * Col. Hunkapiler.
2nd marriage: Eleanor _____ April 26, 1818.
3rd marriage: Martha A. Herlong, Book 4, page 10, Claiborne Co., Miss. Dec. 17, 1833.

There are three Spanish Land Grants on Fairchild's Creek to States Trevillion. The first, he claimed in 1789--convey 1805. One is not dated. The third is dated Sept. 1808. The date 1789, could have been the year that he came to Mississippi Territory with his parents Richard and Patty (Martha) Trevillion.

Temple S. Trevillion fought under Andrew Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans as a Surgeons Mate, 1814.

Writer's Note:- There seems to be a discrepancy here as to exact number of children born of Temple States Trevillion, for he only named seven in his Will, published on the proceeding page. Quoting from Hiram B. Trevillion's letter of June 18, 1900 (produced on preceeding page) he states that his father Absalom Lafayette T. was the youngest of thirteen children, - eleven of whom were boys. Why were six children left out of his Will? My father, Absalom L. was the only son of my grandfather's last marriage to Martha A. Herlong, who died while father was only an infant, and he talked much as he grew up about the family history.

VII 7e. JOHN ABSALOM TREVILLION and his wife, Hulda Floyd 6 children. (He was 5th child of Absalom L. Trevillion.)

VIII 1. JOHN CLARENCE TREVILLION, b. Oct. 22, 1890; lives in Natchez. Married Mazie Larue Cavin, b. 12/2/1893. Both in Wilkinson Co. Their family listed elsewhere.

3. CLAUDIA TREVILLION, b. 1895; m. Larry Flowers, Wilkinson Co.

4. JANE TREVILLION, b. 1898; m. Sam Leake, Wilkinson Co., Miss.

"Hulda" 5. *EZMA "Truitt" TREVILLION, b. 11/11/1905 in Wilkinson Co. She married M. E. Shellinberg, in Kissimmee, Florida. They had daughter:- Adris Marie, b. 12/26/1938. M. George Franklin * Ashley, D.D.S. * They live in Chattanooga, Tenn. Their ch'n listed at *

6. CLARA TREVILLION, b._____ Never married; d. Tiller, Ark. 1886.

* Writer's Note:- About 1925, a Drug Salesman, told the writer, of a nice young Nurse by the name of Ezma Trevillion, employed by a Doctor in HolaPaw, Florida. So we went down on a Sunday and met this lovely lady, who was born in Mississippi. We read her the old letter of Hiram Trevillion, and she said that he was her Uncle. See further data about her in this book. She is quite remarkable lady that we are proud of!

VIII 1. JOHN CLARENCE TREVILLION, 1st son of JOHN ABSALOM; GRANDSON of ABSALOM LAFAYETTE TREVILLION.

JOHN CLARENCE TREVILLION, b. Oct. 22, 1890.

FAMILY BIBLE IN NATCHEZ - Remarks by Loyce Smith Robbins

This was sent to me by Miss Fannie Nesmith, - descendant of Diana Smith Trevillion (wife of Thomas Calvit Trevillion)

JOHN SMITH was born Oct. 13, 1782. DEBORAH ANN TREVILION born 5/24/1782

Thomas Calvit Trevilion was married to Diana Smith Feb. 10, 1839.

The Bible of Martha Smith (in Eros, La.) said that her Uncle, Temple S. Trevilion died in 1845, Jefferson County, Miss. - This is proof that John Smith's wife was a Trevillion.

JOHN SMITH & wife, DEBORAH ANNE (Trevilion) damily data -

I DR. HIRAM TREVILLION SMITH was the son of Deborah Ann Trevillion Smith and John Smith, born 9/11/1828 on Bayou Bartholomew, Ouachita Territory, Louisiana. He is buried in Greenwood Cem'y, Rushton, La., Licoln Parish. There is Masonic Emblem on his tombstone.

"No records can be found of where he attended school, but I (Loyce Smith Robbins) can remember as a child, having seen his diploma along with those of his two sons, where mother kept them in a metal tube. The census records, probate and conveyance records prove he was a physician.... Tradition has it that my grandfather and his two brothers, who were doctors, went to school in Kentucky. I believe this is where they attended Medical school in the mid-1800's.

The 1860 census shows him in Jackson Parish, Vernon, La. married to PARMELIA _____ (no other name). He and Parmelia had a daughter, - Laura A. (Ann or Annie) - less than one year old in Dec. 1860. Parmelia died about this time. Laura A. died in Goldwaite, Texas.

In 1861 Hiram (as he is known to his friends) married Margaret Ann J. Culpepper, eldest child of Chas. Stuart Culpepper and Nancy Guilford C. "Maggie" was born Nov. 12, 1842; died Sept. 10, 1919. She is buried at Mt. Olivet Cem'y, Ft. Worth, Texas. Hiram and Maggie's six children were born in Vernon, Louisiana. They were:-

VII 1. Ida Geneva Smith b. 1/6/1862; d. 5/7/1902; bu. Greenwood Cem. Rushton. M. 3/12/1881, to Mark Aurelius Price b. 3/12/1860; d. 4/10/1935. bu. Rushton.
2. Dr. Charles Sidney Smith b. 7/10/1864; d. 11/29/1890. Never married.
3. Sadie Eudora Smith b. 1/ 1867; d. 11/14/1867; bu. Ebenezer Cem.
4. Cora Emelia Smith b. 2/7/1870; d. 1/5/1926, bu. Mt. Olivet Cem., Ft. Worth. m. Joseph Harrison Price (bro. of the above Mark) son of Col. George Price and 2nd wife, Caroline Winnie Key. Jos. bu. Mt. Olivet Cem. also.

5. Dr. HUGH ANGUS SMITH b. 1/1/1873; (twin to Hiram below), d. 1/1/1906 He is bu. in Transport Cem., Jackson Parish, Louisiana. He married ALMA ANNA STOVALL 4/25/1900; she was born 7/29/1882; Died 3/24/1967; bu. Winnfield Cem'y, Winnfield, Louisiana. Their children were:-
   a. LOYCE MARGARET SMITH b. 11/12/1901 (More data follows)
   b. Hiram Trevillion Smith Jr., lived only two years. Bu. in Ebenezer Cem'y, Jackson Parish, Louisiana.

6. Hiram Trevillion Smith Hr. (twin of the above Hugh) b. 1/1/1873. He died 8/18/1875. Bu. Ebenezer Cem'y, Jackson Parish, Louisiana.

Note: For the off-spring of the Ida Geneva (Smith) Price and Cora Emelia (Smith) Price consult Mrs. Loyce S. Robbins' "Drive Back Into History" or see her "Smith Genealogy". 1969 & 1970.

Hugh Angus Smith graduated from Tulane Medical School in 1894. He went to Bernice, La. to practice Medicine, but after a short time moved to Stovall, La. Here he met and married Alma Anna Stovall in 1900. Then he went to Dodson, La. and built a new home in 1901. It was here that daughter Loyce was born. He died 5 years later.

DR. HUGH ANGUS SMITH, and ALMA STOVALL SMITH

On their Wedding Day - April 29, 1900

They had "runaway" -- she leaving school in Ruston, La. to be married. They were married at Vernon, La. Copy of license elsewhere.

Mother, like her kinswoman, Cecelia Stovall, "a Famous Post-Bellum Southern Beauty of Augusta, Georgia; Was Beautiful, Intelligent, and Romantic too."

The roses at her feet must be her wedding bouquet. The picture was made near the Vernon School. She was the daughter of Jeremiah Jackson Stovall, a prominent merchant of Stovall, Jackson Parish, La.

Dr. Hugh was the son of Dr. Hiram Trevillion Smith of Ruston, La.

PATSEY TREVILLION m. Robert Sneed June 16, 1806. Could this Patsey have been the widow of Richard T. who died in 1800 ? ?

Mrs. Stowers Scott, widow of Stowers G. Scott says she was the daughter of Annie E. Trivilion Smith & John H. Smith. She has been helpful in furnishing information on Jefferson County related families.

ANNIE TREVILLION married John Hiram Smith. Bu. Blue Hill Cem, Miss.
ANNIE was the daughter of JOHN THOMAS TREVILLION. and,
ARCHIE VICTOR SMITH, son of Annie T. Smith, m. Pearl V. Beesley.
JOHN THOMAS was the son of PILLIP BARNES TRAVILLION.

Writer's note:- In April 1959, in company of Thomas H. and Wm. Calvet Trevilion, we met Annie T. Smith and her husband and had quite a pleasant talk with them. Then we went to see the old Trevillion Cemetery nearby. In a few years they had passed on to their reward. For over a hundred years, on the first Saturday in May, surviving relatives and friends gather there to decorate and tidy the graves. There is another Cemetery at Union Church, Miss. (Trevillion)

MY FIRST TRIP - BY AUTO - TO MISSISSIPPI - in 1959

Ray Allen Trovillion

After checking with my Doctor Stewart in Atlanta and getting a most pleasing report that my Cancer was completely healed and gone, Wife Pearl and I decided that we would celebrate by attending the Spring Festival at Natchez, Miss. around Easter time.

From Atlanta we went due west, via Oxford, Miss. where the University of Mississippi is located. Remembering that two Trevillion men had lived in Marks, Miss. we drove there and found that Ellis A. Trevillion, who had been the County Clerk, had recently died and that his widow, Myrtle McArthur Trevilion, had moved into Clarksdale, where she was the owner of "COTTON HOUSE" and her slogan was 'Eat with MYRT'. She had the reputation of being the "finest cook" in all northern Mississippi and known familiarly as Myrt or Aunt Myrt.

Ellis was native of Port Gibson, Miss. (and I think the son of States Trevilion). Ellis Sr. was prominent in the Civic life of Marks and he served as Circuit Court Clerk for 12 years. He died 1955. Myrt and Ellis had two children, - Lieut. Ellis A. Trevilion, a graduate of Ole Miss, class of 1943 and a daughter, Mary Elizabeth "Sis". In World War II, after only 11 days in France, died the hero's death Jan. 3, 1945. Daughter "Sis" Mary E. shortly before she would have graduated from "Ole Miss", married Sam Watson of Memphis, Tenn. They have 2 sons (1959) Sam Jr. and Paul Andrew. More about Myrt later.

After arriving in Clarksdale, we went over to the Bank of Clarksdale and met Wm. B. "Jake" Trevilion, who was Cashier and a top ranking Officer of this Bank. He was a son of States Trevilion and was raised in Claiborne County, Miss. He graciously invited us to spend the evening with him and meet his wife, who was the Librarian in the city. We enjoyed our evening talking of our family history but we could not convince Mrs. Trevilion that the first Trevillions came out of Virginia via of North Carolina, as Richard did. She "just knew that they were French and came up from Louisiana into Mississippi and she would send me a book which told of it". I am still waiting for the book and the evidence... Jake is now retired.

Next morning, we had a delicious breakfast at MYRT's nice restaurant and bought one of her "MYRT TREVILION'S COOK BOOKS", which contained delicious recipes that have made Southern Cooking famous. (She died in late 1959.)

Then we drove south to Vicksburg where we visited the National Park, where General U.S. Grant besieged the city until he starved the citizens OUT. As our Guide said, 'Grant never would have conquered us if we hadn't got tired of eating our dogs and cats'. We enjoyed the evening with Mr. & Mrs. Gene Trevilion and meeting Gene's brother, James (who has since died). We still correspond at Christmas.

It was the day before Easter, when we checked in at the Motel at the pretty town of Port Gibson. My 1st cousin Howard T. had told me of Tom Trevilion, who was Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners and also on the Mississippi River Scenic Highway Committee. Tom and his wife, Flo, and 3 boys had a nice home on the north side of town. He took us for a real sightseeing trip and one of the highlights was seeing the remains of old Windsor plantation house, which was the scene of movie, RAINTREE COUNTY in which Elizabeth Taylor starred. Then we met Wm. Calvet and his lovely wife, Callie D. at their nice home on the south side of town. On Sunday, we attended church at their

FIRST TRIP TO MISSISSIPPI - Cont'd.

Methodist Church enjoying the Easter service with the Trevilion families. Callie D. and Calvet insisted that we have Sunday dinner with them. We met her young son, Calvet, and her sister.

In the afternoon, Tom came by and we all rode out to Red Lick community, where the first TREVILLIONS settled in Jefferson County. There we met and talked with Annie Trevillion Smith and her husband John Hiram Smith. We visited the old Trevillion Cemetery.

On Monday, we took a tour with Flo (Tom's wife) and Edith Norwood (Tom's sister). The azaleas and camellias were beautiful - the steeple of the Presbyterian Church, which pointed upward to Heaven. I wish to say that we were treated "royally" by our Port Gibson kin and since then have corresponded with Callie D. quite regularly. In 1971, we made a return call on Callie D. and Calvet, after our second visit to the Natchez Spring Festival.

On the way to Natchez, we stopped for about an hour at the Courthouse and found many helpful Trevillion Legal Records. (Today this Courthouse is manned with all black elected officials.)

South of Fayette, the above County Seat, we visited Greenfield, the old deserted plantation where Andrew Jackson brought his bride, Rachel, while on their honeymoon. Then on to Natchez vis of the old NATCHEZ TRACE, - the pioneer road to Nashville, Tenn.

Our three day stay in this old southern city, filled with its restored Anti-Bellum homes, was a delightful experience. It gave us the restored vision of what this fine city was back in the "Good old days". A review of its history is worth time to relate. In 1700 the French built a trading post; then came the English in 1763; in 1779 the Spanish took over from England.. And in 1798 the territory became a part of the United States. Three Trevillions had to take the Oath of Allegiance to become bonifide citizens.

One night we attended the Confederate Pageant and it was a wonderful exposition of the Chivalrous days of the Old South when the artist John James Audubon was an instructor at the Military Academy of Art and Dance. The grand march was a thing of beauty. We enjoyed our tours of the many Anti-Bellum homes. On our trip to Natchez in 1971, we saw the old TEXADA TAVERN, where Mahala Trevilion Texada was mistress and owner with her Spanish Grandee husband. Dr. & Mrs. Moss are restoring it to original condition. (See picture of Pearl and Mrs. Moss in front of The Tavern.) Mrs. Moss is the piano accompanist at the bi-weekly Confederate Pageant. She told us that she and the Doctor lived in Winter Park during World War II, when the Doctor was stationed at Orlando Air-Force Base.

We enjoyed the delicious meals at the Carriage House Restaurant at Stanton Hall, owned by the Pilgrimage Garden Club. Do try to attend one of the Spring Festivals held each March. It's a MUST!

One night, we had the pleasure of visiting at the home of John Clarence Trevillion, and meeting his nice wife and some of his children. (His wife has since died, March 24, 1967.) We also met Mrs. Miller, the only daughter of Everitte E. Trevilion. We did a lot of talking and exchange of bits of family history. We found the Trevillions that we met in Mississippi a fine group of folks that we are proud to claim "KIN" with. We hoped they liked us!

Coincident!! Our nice Mississippi Genealogist, Mrs. Loyce Smith Robbins had told the writer that there was quite a group of TREVILLIONS living around Waterproof, Louisiana, but she had not been able to contact them for family data. In early January 1973, the writer's son, Allen Trovillion, who is a building Contractor recieved a letter from E. L. Trevillion of Quitman, La. soliciting a position in Allen's firm as a Foreman. When Allen replied, I enclosed a note requesting information about his family, so their line could be included in the new book, "The Silver Horse". Today, Jan. 28, '73 I recieved the following:-

"Dear Kinsman, Enclosed you will find what information I could uncover on such short notice.

As a child I can remember going to Blue Hills Cemetery, the first Saturday of May every year to the Trevillion Cemetery. We called it Graveyard cleaning, actually the brush cutting takes place on Fridays. Then on Saturday the dinner is served at the Cemetery amongst the oaks, acorns and pines. Such a beautiful sight and smell in those backwoods. Relatives from everywhere, meet here every year. My Dad Harvey Hiram Trevillionnever missed a gathering. He attended his last service in 1967 even though he had just got out of the hospital, after suffering a Heart attack. He was proud that I went with him that year. He told me it was his last trip over there and that some day he hoped someone would uncover some of the History of the Trevillions, coming into Mississippi and from where they came. Dad died 7 weeks after attending the graveyard service. I have tried to go to the service in May every year. I have many scars on my feet from childhood, roaming those hills searching for old Homestaeds of early Trevillions, finding scattered pieces of brick, pots and broken rails from corrals built way back in the 1800's by Trevillions in Jefferson and Claiborne Counties.

My two sons, Harvey Edward and David Kieth and three daughters, Shiela, Lynne and Alicia still enjoy the search. There is much confusion about so many "Temple States Trevillions" amon g our younger generation, - the name is still handed down thru my immediate generation.

When your Book comes out, I would like a copy. Maybe it will fill in the missing links from my Grandfather Temple States Trevillio born 1860 - 1921 to his ancestors. Good luck on the Book and I hope to meet you on my next trip to Florida.

P.S. I've just read "Drive Back In History" as you reccomended. Picked up a lots of info. Thanks again.

(I told him of copies at Rushton and Winn Parish, La.) Mrs. Robbins placed these valuable family Histories in these Libraries. Thanks to her!

The most revealing information in Silver Horse is the story of Richard and his marriage to Patty STOTS, from whence the popular name of Temple States came!

FAMILY BIBLE IN NATCHEZ

This was sent to me by Miss Fannie Nesmith--descendant of Diana Smith Trevillion (wife of Thomas Calvit Trevillion):

John Smith was born October 13, 1782.

Deborah Ann Trevilion was born May 24, 1791.

Thomas Calvit Trevilion was married to Diana Smith February 10, 1839.

This is found in the Port Gibson Court House Marriage Record Book 4 at page 10:

Temple S. Trevilion and Martha A. Herlong married December 17, 1833.

The Bible of Martha Smith (in Eros, Louisiana) said that her uncle, Temple S. Trevilion died in 1845, Jefferson County, Mississippi. This is proof that John Smith's wife was a Trevillion.

1. The following surnames are taken from those of the ancient princes of the country:—Cadwallader, Griffin, Gwynnett, (Gwynnedd,) Craddock, (Caradoc,) Howell, Lewellyn, Madoc, Owen, Rice, (Rhuys,) Tudor, (Tewdor.)

2. These by adding "s" to Scripture names,—viz.: Adams, Daniels, Davies, (Davids,) Ellis, (Elias,) Johnes or Jones, James, Isaacs, Jacobs, Matthews, Phillips, Stephens, Symonds, Peters, Thomas.

3. And these by adding "s" to common Christian names:—Clements, Edmunds, Edwards, Evans, Hughes, Humphreys, Jeffreys, (Geoffreys,) Richards, Roberts, Rowlands, Wills, Williams, Watts, Walters.

4. "Ap" or "ab" means son, and is often prefixed to other names; and the affix "kins" denotes a collateral relation: thus, Bevan is equivalent to Ap-Evan; Bowen, Ap-Owen; Breese, Ap-Rees; Parry, Ap-Harry; Powell, Ap-Howell; Pugh, Ap-Hugh; Price, Ap-Rice; Prichard, Ap-Richard; Penry, Ap-Henry. Atkins, (Arthurs'-kin,) Dickens-son, Dawkins, Haskins, Hawkins, Hopkins, Jenkins, Judkins, (Judas-kin,) Pickens, Perkins-son, Tomkins, Watkins, Wilkins.

5. Some of the above names may be Cornish, old British, or otherwise Celtic, rather than strictly Welsh; thus, the English have a proverb,—

> "By Tre, Pol, and Pen
> You may know the Cornish men."

6. It is curious to note how many of the original Puritans of New England, of the Quakers of Pennsylvania, of the Baptists of Virginia and elsewhere, of advocates of extreme republican opinions in matters of State, as well as of Revolutionary leaders, bore names to be found in the above list. Of very many of the citizens of the Piedmont district, in Virginia, the same may be said. Their ancestors may have been attracted thither from its resemblance to the Principality in its physical features.

THE SILVER HORSE
OR
A HISTORY OF THE TREVILLIAN FAMILY
BY
RAY A. TROVILLION

According to ancient Cornish tradition, the Family of Trevillian sprang from Spencer's submerged land of LIONESSE. A small creek near St. Michael's Mount is pointed out in Cornwall England, as the place where the Trevillian ancestor landed, and the white or silver horse which saved him may be seen swimming on the family shield or Coat-of-Arms. Early Americans bearing the name "Trevillian" had the right to these Coat-of-Arms, according to William & Mary Quarterly - 1893 Vol.

Before proceeding further in giving a partial history of the good family, I would say that the purpose of any research that I and others like Uncle Knox Trovillion, Dr. Ed C. Trovillion, Penn and Hal W. Trovillion, have done is to provide information for our kinspeople and future generations, of the struggles of our pioneers forefathers - of their honorable and noble characteristics - how they struggled and sacrificed to make a goodly land for all of us to live in. We should ever be grateful for their zeal and pioneering spirit.

In 1950, George M. Trevelyan, England's greatest Historian, wrote to Hal W. Trovillion, saying in part: "It is a rare name and certainly Cornish and I make no doubt at all at our connection, though it must date back to the early 17th century. Our name is pronounced "Tre-vil'-yan" and it means PLACE of the MILL. A mill is still there, 5 miles from Fowey. (Hal and Violet Trovillion and Mary Trovillion Musgrave have visited the spot). IT IS NOT FRENCH" end of quote.

Trevelyans were in Cornwall before William the Conqueror came. In Cornwall, Trevelyans served as High Sheriff, Chaplain to the King, as members of Parliament and one year, 1453, a Trevelyan was araraigned for piracy, which was not uncommon, as any lusty gentleman of the coastwise counties would commit as a matter of course in that lawless age that produced such gentlemen pirates as Sir Francis Drake. In the days of Cromwell some of the family were for the King in the great Civil War of 1642 to 1646. The ones for Cromwell were called "Roundheads" (protestants mostly) and the ones for the King were called "Cavaliers". After Cromwell's death, Royalists and Cavaliers took full revenge upon the Roundheads, Dissenters and Puritans, and it was then that certain Trevillians were given 10 days to flee the realm, according to Uncle Knox Trovillion, and E. E. Trovillion of Mississippi.

On November 1, 1664, our first John TREVILLIAN, came to Virginia with John Bruorton, and took up land in Warwick County near Yorktown. Later he married Jane Curtis, daughter of Robert Curtis of York County. In the Court of York County, Virginia, in 1684 one JOHN TRAVILLION filed suit and complaint against John Lewis and Lylborne, defendants for stealing and killing of hogs of said Travillion. The defendants were adjudged guilty and were fined 2000 pounds of Tobacco for each of four hogs stolen.... Neighbors of his were Thomas Carr, Daniel Parke, John Lewis Esq., and plain John Lewis; John Maddox, James Dabney, Chas. Yancey, Wm. Compton and as you know, many of these names have been often connected to the Travillion family in Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Illinois.

As members of our pioneer family moved gradually westward, we find them in Gloucester County, Hanover, Louisa and Albemarle County, Virginia. In Hanover County we find Thomas Trevillion keeping an Ordinary (similar to colonial taverns) as a neighbor to the Jouet family, who were Huegenots. There Thomas Trevillion was a neighbor also to Patrick Henry and General Thomas Nelson, both of Revolutionary War fame. Thomas was a Captain in Hanover County Militia and later was the first Census taker of Hanover County and he had 9 children and 17 blacks (slaves). General Nelson had 15 whites and 73 blacks.

Other Trevillians serving in the Revolutionary War were: Thomas, of Caroline County, Hundley, John, James Lewis, Joab and Richard. In 1751 James and John Trevillian, sons of Thomas of Hanover County, Va., moved to Granville County, North Carolina, where they served in the Colonial Militia. James had sold his lands in Virginia to Thomas Trevillian, Jr. and had purchased 1240 acres in N. Carolina from the Earl of Granville. Later these two brothers sold their lands in Granville County and moved westward in the mountains of western North Carolina and Tennessee. James Trevillian's sons were Richard, Joab and James and from these sons came the Georgia-Tennessee branch, namely, from Joab, and from Richard is descended the Mississippi branch and from James came the middle Tennessee-Illinois group of Trevillions. This James and his wife, Sarah, had returned to Virginia, purchasing a farm first in Louisa County near Trevillian Station. Later they sold this plantation, in 1778, and moved westward and owned a plantation among the Carrs and bordering the birthplace of Thomas Jefferson. Many marriages occurred among the Travillions and the Carrs. Susannah Carr who married Edward Travillion (son of James) was a first cousin of Dabney Carr who married Martha Jefferson, after being one of Thomas Jefferson's most intimate friends.

Through the influence of his father-in-law, Thomas Carr, Edward T. moved with his family to Cedar Grove* community in Wilson County, Tennessee, 1808, where he bought a plantation near the ~~Hermitage~~ Red Hill, was Andrew Jackson's ~~last~~ 1st home. He had notoriety as the owner of the Mad Stone' that seemed to cure hydrophobia or rabies. He was prominent as prominence went in those days, being a deacon (1819) in the Cedar Grove Baptist Church.* The oldest of his sons was James Yancey, who married Betty Ann Maddox and after more than half of their 14 children were born in Tennessee, he asked for and received his inheritance and floated down the Cumberland River to the land he had seen in Pope County, Illinois when he served with the Tennessee Volunteers in the Black Hawk War. 1832 Since all Travillions and Carrs loved fox and other game hunting, they chose their lands in hilly and wooded country. Before moving to Illinois, James Yancey Troyvillion, 1832 served in the Seminole War in Florida and had the distinction of being the tallest man in the regiment, being 6 feet 5 and 3/4 inches in height. Folks who saw him riding his rather small red mule said that it was an amusing sight to see his legs dangling and almost touching the ground. His 14 children were:* Daniel Parke (m.Elizabeth Lewis); Edward "Uncle Ned"(m.Nancy Carr); Harriet (m.Dixon); Thomas Y. (m. Chambers); Margaret "Mary Mollie" (m. 1-Reams; 2- Bisler); Martha Maddox (m.Abbitt, then Boswell, familiarly known as "Patsy"; George W.;

JOHN TREVILIAN, a Hugenot ? refugee from France, Came to the colonies of Virginia and founded the family in the old Commonwealth of Va.
His son, JOHN was the father of Col. JOHN MAYO T, who was born in 1800 in Goochland O'y, Va. and he died 1873 age 73.
Col. John M. married Mary Argyle who died 1878, age 70. Capt. Charles Braxton Trevilian was their son, born in Goochland O'y Sept. 15, 1838. Capt. C.B. was officer in Confederate Army 1861,- Co. F, 4th Va. Cav'ly. Wounded at Gettysburg and made prisoner at Lake Erie; after release, rejoined his command His children: Nannie H. Mary R., Blanche C. (Moncure) and Gardner Houston T. Chas B. T. married his 2nd Cousin, Mary s. Houston. .....His brother was Dr. John Guerant Trevillian who married Miss Parrish. Prominent in Richmond, Va.

Note:- The first JOHN Trevillian, (in my opinion after much research of the Rolls of the Hugenot Society, of Manekin County, Va.) was not listed as a Hugenot, He was most likely a REFUGEE from England- surely a Cromwellian- who as our American historians, like, Rev James Knox Polk Travillion has recorded,- "He had 10 days to flee the realm", after King Charles II, returned to the throne. He probably joined the Hugenots in France and obtained passage on their ship to Virginia.
Then, we have the record from Richmond State Library, that John Bruerton did on Nov.1, 1664 transport JOHN TRAVILLIAN, with others to the Virginia Colony.
Historian George M. Trevelyan, says definitely we are NOT FRENCH
There TRIVILLIANS in Italy. Since we are in the DOOMSDAY Book we must have come with ROMANS to Cornwall, England.

DOOMSDAY BOOK
OR DOMESDAY BOOK

The record of a general survey of England made 1085-86 by order of William I (William the Conqueror).

The survey ascertained the economic resources of most of the country for purposes of more accurate taxation. Royal agents took the evidence of local men in each hundred, the latter acting as inquest jurors. Descriptions of each piece of land, its present and former holders, the holding itself, and the population on it were included among the facts recorded. For the thoroughness and speed with which it was taken, the Domesday Survey as an administrative measure is unsurpassed in medieval history. Written from the data thus gathered, the Domesday Book is an invaluable historical source. It has furnished material for several books.

Virginia and Virginians v. 2

CAPT. CHARLES B. TREVILIAN.

John Trevilian, a Huguenot refugee from France, came to the colony of Virginia and founded the family in the Old Commonwealth. His son John was the father of Col. John M. Trevilian, who was born in Goochland county, Virginia, and who died in 1873, aged seventy-three years.

Colonel Trevilian married Mary C. Argyle, who died in 1878, aged seventy years. Capt. Charles B. Trevilian is their son, and was born in Goochland county, September 15, 1838.

He received his education in Hampden-Sidney College and in the University of Virginia. He entered the Confederate States army in 1861, Company F, 4th Virginia Cavalry, and was promoted captain of the company. At Gettysburg he was wounded and made prisoner, and was held twenty-two months on Johnsons Island, Lake Erie. After release he rejoined his command, and was again wounded, at High Bridge, in the retreat to Appomattox. Captain Trevilian held the office of collector of revenue in New Kent county, Virginia, one year, and for the last two years has filled the position he is now holding in the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, Williamsburg, that of supervisor.

He married in Rockbridge county, Virginia, March 1, 1865, Mary S. Houston, who was born in that county, the daughter of Dr. David S. Houston, who died in 1864, and Nancy (Dix) Houston, who died in 1887. Nannie H., oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Trevilian, is now deceased; their living children are three: Mary R., Blanche E. and Gardner H.

Richard served in the Revolutionary War, was in the battle of King's Mountain and received a pension. Recorded in North Carolina State Library. This would qualify descendants for the DAR.

Mrs. McBee's Natchez Court Records--Vol. II, Page 219 states that Richard Trevillion and wife, Patsy are witnesses for Winnie Ryan. It says that they knew her in North Carolina twelve or thirteen years earlier. Dated July 19, 1794. So they were in North Carolina about 1781. They migrated to Mississippi about 1788--via Tennessee.

Their daughter, Deborah Ann, born in 1791, says she was born in Mississippi. (1850 Louisiana Census)

McBee's Court Records Vol. II, Page 524--No. 783 says in the abstract that Richard died in 1800.

All of the recorded Trevillions of Mississippi are descendants of Richard Trevillion. They also spilled over into Louisiana and Texas.

Mrs. J. L. Robbins,
220 Bankhead St.
New Albany, Miss.

Dear Mrs. Robbins,

The local Postmaster has put your letter of inquiry as to my address and I assume that you are one of the many Trevillion descendants and belong to the Miss branch.

It does please me know that there are members of our "Tree" that do care enuf to want to know more of their heritage and some of the past History of the family. BUT, it saddens me to tell these folks that as of this date, there is no printed copy of all the information and notes that I have gathered in the last 32 years. And "time is running out" for me as I celbrated my 77th birthday a week ago (14th).

My wife's cousin has just completed the PRIEST Family" and she has had the pages "zeroxed" and bound in a cloth binding, with each copy costing about $20.00. I may do this if my daughters who type, will help me.

As you will see from the letter enclosed, that I wrote Mrs. Bassett (which gives some of the background and family data) that the thing that I have been waiting for, is for latter family data, showing the line of descendants coming down from TEMPLE STATES (STOTS) T. Thos. C., Phillip and John. To print up the History, without this folbw-up, would leave such a void, our people would regret it. There are lots of Legal Court records, of marriages, wills and family Bibles to complete your Mississippi more completely. There is John Clarence Trevillion of Natchez, Mrs. Bassett (now of Michigan) for the Vicksburg group and Mrs. Wm Calvet Trevilon of Port Gibson, who should be willing to help you bring these Miss records up to date. WON'T YOU DO THIS?

I am guessing that you may be from the Marks, Miss group; am I right? Please tell me. Is W.B. "Jake" Trevilion the banker in Clarksdale still living. His wife was the Librarian, who says we were descended from the French via of Louisiana. This is absolutely WRONG! I have letters from Hiram Trevilion and Everett written 69 years ago which refutes this fact. I have visited the old Baptist Church (Dumplin Creek, Tenn.) founded 1796 and names on the Roll of the Church are some of your descendants. My home in the N.C. mountains is only a hours drive from this old settlement. David Crockett's sister Margaret was listed with many Trevillions, 1796.

It has been fun putting to-gether the Family Jig-saw puzzle, but now I need help on later generations.

I also enclose a page (Zeroxed) of early Miss T's. My son is a very busy Building Contractor and I take advantage of using his Zerox now and then. Won't you write to me and tell where you fit into the TREVILLIAN picture? Would you like to help get newer Miss data?

Yours sincerely, Ray A Trovillion

Mrs. John R. Trovillion Bassett, (daughter of James TREVILLION, deceased 1205 Pine, Crossett, Ark. Vicksburg, Miss.

Dear Mrs. Bassett,

Now it is my time to apologize to you for not answering welcome letter of April 9, '64 sooner than this. As much as I dislike excuses, I must say that I did have several to set up this delay. First one is that we have a 14 year old grandson who was to have his 5th head operation for brain tumor during April,- this one more of a plastic surgery one. After his Doctors gave him only 4 to 6 months to live, he has carried on for 19 months, is back in school and has the best disposition of all of close relatives. Arthur is a grand boy and we pray for his complete recovery. (He died June 4, 1965)

Just as soon as we got him back from the hospital and on his feet, my wife Pearl and I came up here to a newly purchased Mountain cottage near Balsam & Waynesville, N.C. We had so much to do- furnishing the house, cutting down about 50 trees that had grown up in the grounds the past 8 years while it had not been lived in since it was built in 1956. Mountain men for help are mighty hard to get, although this is in the Appalachia area, supposedly in the "poverty zone". I am thankful for a wife who loves to do things, so she has been the painter and I have labored "to hard" in the yard, but together we have the place in fairly good shape. We have had a lot of company- mostly our own children and their families, so I just haven't had much time to catch up on correspondence.

Since we are expecting 6 more of our folks next Thursday my son, Allen, his wife and 3 yr. son and a close cousin and wife from Illinois, I thought now is the time to tell you about my Note book of Trovillion History.

First, I will say that it is still in manuscript form and not right up to date at that. It looks from here like it might not be put in book form, as I am unable to get the assistance needed to do it. My cousin Hal W. Trovillion now 85, was a publisher of the oldest Private Press in America, but now has had a stroke and is in a Nursing Home in Illinois. (He died 1967) Now 77 I would love to do it, but I am now 72 years of age and time flies by or "tempus fugits". I had promise "faintly" of one wife of a Mississippian Trovillion of looking up court records south of Vicksburg, but so far have not seen any "findings." In 1959, I stopped for one hour at Fayette Courthouse, Jefferson County, where I found many old records, beginning with the first of your branch, Temple States (Stots) Travillion. His mother was Patty Stots who married Richard Travillion in 1768 in Rowan County, N. Carolina. There are, I feel sure, many old records in Claiborne County, Miss.

Well your branch came out of Henover County, Virginia into N. Carolina, even earlier than mine did- as early as 1751, into Grenville County then westward into the Blue Ridge mountains along the Nollichucky River. One of them married a Cherokee Indian Woman, named Mahalia.

born in Louisa County, Va.

Richard had brothers, Joab, John and James. Our Illinois branch descended from James, his son Edward settled in Wilson County Tenn. and his children moved into Kentucky and Southern Illinois, where my father Dr. Jerry Allen Trovillion was born in 1865. My mother was born in Kentucky, a granddaughter of Lucinda (Trovillion) Compton. She was 2nd cousin of my father, so my roots are well founded in the old South, which I so dearly love. My wife is a real Floridian, with South Carolina and Georgia grand-parentage.

Joab lived in Eastern Tennessee, later moving to western Tenn. Some of his children lived in N. Georgia. John remained in middle Tenn. I forgot to say that I found where Richard T. recieved pay for service in Revolutionary War, Battle of King's Mountain. Record in Raleigh, N.C. State Library. This would be your Trevillion way of D.A.R. qualification. The spelling in this record was TREVILLION, and earlier it was TRAVILLION. Don't let different spellings throw you off the track. There are 3 different spelling of our name in America as well as in England. George Macauley Trevelyan, the noted historian of England, whom I have heard from a few times before his death in 1962, said his forbears spelled it Trevillian, and always pronounced the name as Tre, vil'-yun.

We definitely of Cornish descent- not French Hugenots as has often been rumored. The name went back before William the Conqueror in Cornwall. One JOHN Trevillian came to Virginia in 1664 and lived around Yorktown, Va.

If you are further interested, in assisting in getting up the Mian. line of our history, let me know and I will send you Zerox copies of what I already have of your branch.

We did so enjoy meeting your father and your Uncle Gene as well as others there. We met the Port Gibson folks and had planned to return for another Natchez Festival before now.

I amsending you the Trevelyan- Trevillian Coat-of-Arms. These I ran off on my son's Zerox, not too good but will show you what it's like. The legend of the Silver White Horse swimming from the sinking of Land's End, Cornwall to Micheal's Bay. On his back was one lone survivor of this sinking of Land, and he was a Trevillian. There have other additions to the Arms, such as 2 Dolphins on the side, etc., but this one is basic.

You might tell your father that my son Allen with whom he held the long telephone conversation in '58, is ~~now~~ our (was) Mayor and is doing a pretty nice job of it. He needs a rest, so he talked to us to-night and says he and the wife Rhoda will be with us Thursday for rest and some Golf.

I am pleased that you and your Aunt are interested in our History. People need to know of their Pedigrees as well as high grade animals. We can be proud of our family,- as there have been many Ministers, Doctors and teachers and other equally fine folks. I always liked my farmer kin, where I loved to visit. Give my regards to your folks. Write again.

Yours sincerely,

Ray Trovillion

TREVILLIAN HISTORY.....

FOURTH GENERATION- (Cont'd) Mississippi Branch- 1772

RICHARD TRIVILLIAN, brother of James & John- of Hanover County, Va. (or son of)

(From "Dr, Ramsey's Annals of Tennessee", pub. 1853, Charleston, S.C.

1772- Land of the Cherokees- on the Nollichucky River or creek, near Greenville, Tenn. mountains, settled by Jacob Brown with one or two families,- Quoted "The writer has a deed of conveyance now before him, from Jacob Brown to RICHARD TRIVILLIAN, for 240 acres of land lying on the southside of the river- Nollichucky. The consideration is 100 pounds (£), and the title is not a fee simple, but only a relinquishment on the part of the grantor. A transfer of land was made in the most simple mode. Upon the back of deed from Brown, is endorsed:- 'For Value recieved, 85 £, I do hereby assign all my right, claim and interest of the within deed, unto George Gillespie, as Witness my Hand and Seal,

Witness: Amos Bird RICHARD TRIVILLIAN (Seal)

Note from Ramsey's Tennessee:- 1770.

Col. JAMES KNOX leader of 1770 expedition from Virginia to lower Cumberland,- called "Long Hunters".

THOS. CARR, agent for Tennessee (Land) Company, (3½ million acres, together Zachariah Cox, Thos. Gilbert and John Strother, took possession by armed force at the mouth of the French Broad river, Jan'y 10, 1791. A bounty of 500 acres offered each family, near Muscle Shoals. Settlers had fights with the Indians.*

* Evert E. Trevilion, of Wilkinson, Miss. and who is a great grand son of the above Richard T., writ es:-" My great-grandfather, Richard Trevillion, immigrated from Louisa County, Virginia through Tennessee, Kentucky, thence down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, in a flat boat to Jefferson County, Mississippi, finally reaching Miss. about 1804-'05."(Date by Hiram T.) E.E.T. continues:-"By a historical event, I think that I can establich the date that the Trevillions started to Mississippi as they were in a fight with the Indians at Muscle Shoals, on the Tennessee River. There were two brothers and one sister that came with Richard T. and this one sister lived to be 111 years old. The only children of Richard known are:

(1) TEMPLE STATES TREVILLION, Born about 1775 in Va. or Tenn. He had 13 children. They were in part;- Dr. Thomas T. b. 1805; Dr. John T. (to Texas); Philip T. Templeton S. T.; Hiram Henderson T.; John Thomas T.; the 13th son was Absalom Lafayette T. (father of Evert E.T.; Hiram B. (1850); S.M. T.) Could be Deborah (WHO were the 2 Girls ??) There being 11 boys and two girls)."

The late Hiram B. Trevilion, the brother of E.E. and son of Absalom Lafayette T. wrote to Penn V. Trevillion (Golconda, Ills) June 18, 1900 in part:-"My father says the story has been handed down that The TREVILIONS came from France as Hugenots and left shortly after the St. Bartholomews massacre and came to Virgina to escape religious persecution. He (Temple States T.) said that originally the name had two L's but the family were divided during the Revolutionary War, and some were ~~tories and after the war the patriots dropped one L, spelling the name TREVILION.~~ That in brief is the tradition ? that we now have and tell others. Temple States T. fought under Andrew Jackson in the battle of New Orleans as Surgeons Mate."

Writers note:- EZMA (Truett) Trevilion, Shellenberg a brilliant young lady now living in Kissimmee, Florida is a daughter of S.M. T. above and a granddaughter of Absalom L.T. She married Peter Shellenberg and has one child. She served as President of the Business & Professional Womens Club of Florida. She is a Registered Nurse.

Fernwood Miss Jan 18 - 1900.

Mr Pierce V. Trevillion

Golconda Ill.

Dear Sir. Your letter of the 10 last forwarded me from Columbia Miss was received today. I do not know if you are aware that I am a Methodist preacher and was moved by our recent conference to this place, viz Fernwood, Pike Co. Miss.

I think possibly, yes probably we are all of the same parent stock.

I give first the history of the Trevilion family so far as I know it, and then the traditions. My grandfather, Temple Stokes Trevilion, came from Virginia to Kentucky, thence down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, in a flat boat to Jefferson Co Miss, in I think 1804 or 5. He settled in that County among the very early settlers of that portion of Miss, and was a physician, and my father, Absalom Lafayette Trevilion was the youngest of thirteen children, eleven of whom were boys. My father was the only son of his third, and last marriage, nursed old grand father in his old age and was his daily companion, for he, i.e. grand fathers last wife died when my father was an infant and he talked much to my father about the family history. His story was that the Trevilions in France were Huguenots and left France because of religious persecution shortly after St Bartholomew massacre and came to Virginia. He said that originally the name had two Ls. but the family were divided during the Revolutionary war, and some were Tories and after the war the patriots dropped one L, spelling the name Trevilion.

That in brief is the tradition? that we now have and believe and tell to others - Family given names with us have been - Temple - States - Hiram - and Thomas -

Some years ago, in some magazine history of the Civil war I noticed a Trevillion station in Virginia, but the geographical location was not given -

I know nothing of any other branch of the Trevilions except the descendants of my grand father, as he brought the name to this section and all of us here descended from him - However nearly all of my fathers ~~fam~~ Brothers, all except two left no male issue - Uncle John went to Texas, died there and left some boys, another uncle has grand children somewhere in Louisiana - I have one brother S. M. Trevilion at Union Church Miss and another at Sarkum Miss -

If you have the good fortune to make any discoveries about the family name or tribe please write me as I am anxious to find out. If I had known there was a man at Golconda so near the family name I would have written you long ago. I am a member of Mississippi Conference of the Methodist E Church South, am fifty years old and have three children, the youngest 20 yrs old.

Yours Very Respectfully
Hiram B Trivilion

Pike Co Miss

I have been among the Louisiana French considerable and they all claim me as French on hearing my name.

mation was given to me tonight by Mrs Stowers Scott also will let me copy a list of Trevillions in her family at that time. This will cost $1.00 because I will be from town that long - Annie Elizabeth Trevillion was the daughter Thomas Trevillion, son of Philip Burnes Trevillion (Mrs (Lillie) Stowers Scott

There are about fifty or more graves marked with a wood marker, no names.
In this cemetery is an outdoor church, consisting of nine wooden benches facing the cemetery, a stand for the use of the minister's Bible, and the minister's bench, facing the congregation. To the left of the outdoor church is a long table. On the first Saturday in May all living relatives return to the cemetery, have church services, and dinner.

Notes: There are four unmarked graves. One the grave of "The Wild Man" - whose name they do not know - He was called "The Wild Man" because after killing his family he lived in the woods away from people. This was given to me by Mrs Lillie Scott. The other three graves are at present unknown, All others are listed above.

The above reference "South" "East", represents Measurements from the East fence toward the West fence and from the South fence to the North fence - This is the way they refer to the graves that are unmarked. They put flowers on all the graves and marked with a small headstone and small footstone each of the unmarked graves.

Subject: [MSJEFFER-L] Re: Trevillions Part I

Hi here's a little something on the Trevillions
John Thomas Trevillion 13 Apr 1858 - 28 Dec 1935 died at the age of 78 yrs 8 no and 15 days married on 02 Nov 1880 in Jefferson County, MS to Fransonia Abigal Humphreys 11 Nov 1857 - 07 Jun 1936
They are buried in the TREVILLION CEMETERY in Jefferson Co., MS

Among the Trevillions buried there also are
T. States Trevillion 1860 - 1921
Matilda Trevillion no dates wife of T. State Trevillion
I believe that she might be the S. M. Dennis that married T.S. Trevillion in Jefferson County, MS 14 Dec 1882

2 young boys .. no marker or dates .. sons of George & Annie Trevillion
3 babies .. no dates .. babies of States and Matilda

Among the infor in notes taken is: John Thomas Trevillion's parents:
Phillip Barnes Trevillion 27 Dec 1819 - 1862 (This must be a Senior) wife: Matilda Valines Humphreys b ? d 6 Feb 1910 Her 2nd marriage
Matilda was Fransonia Abigail Humphrey's mother

Phillip Barnes Trevillion no dates
Etta Trevillion .. no dates .. 18 yr old dau of Phillip B. Trevillion

Phillip B. Trevillion married Matilda Jane Rogillio, d/o John Rogillio and Elziabeth Smith. They married in Adams Co, MS 11 mar 1856

Some early marriages of the MANY Temple States Trevillions (some of these were refered to as Temple .. some at States .. some as T.S. take your choice)

>From HUNTING FOR BEARS
26 Nov 1807 *Temple States Trevillion m Nelly Nevels
(Jefferson Co.)
24 Aug 1821* States Trevillion married Elizabeth Wright
(Jefferson Co.)
04 May 1824 *Temple S. Trevillion married _____Martin
(Jefferson Co.)
25 Apr 1826 *Temple S. Trevillion married Margaret Martin
(Jefferson Co.)
17 Dec 1833 * Temple Trevillion married Martha A. Herlong

(Claiborne Co)
06 Jul 1836 John A. Trevillion married Nancy Burns
(Jefferson Co.)
10 Jan 1846 Mrs. Martha Trevillion married Miles Lilley
30 Jan 1873 Absoleum L. Trevillion married Ellen B. Buckely (Jefferson Co.)
02 Nov 1880 J.T. Trevillion married Abbie Humphreys
(Jefferson Co.)
14 Aug 1882 Jesse A. Trevillion married J. P. Orr
(Jefferson Co.

The Temple States marked with an asterick .. I was told that this was the same guy. Cannot vouch for that ! ! !

There is a book The Silver Horse by Ray Travillion but the last time I tried to contact him I was told he died at the age of 92 in Florida. It might be available through your genealogical library. in 1768 a Richard Trevillion married Patty Stots (States) in Rowan Co. Records, Salisbury Court House, North Carolina. It is supposed thatis where the States comes from in our Temple States Trevillion

Lots of 'good stuff' in The Natchez Court Records, 1767 - 1805 by May Wilson McBee That will be in Part II

Subject: [MSJEFFER-L] Part II of the Trevillion Saga

In The Natchez Court Records 1767 - 1805, by May Wilson McBee Lots of good stuff in this book.
Richard Trevillion bought 150 arpents on St. Catherine's Creek 6 aug 1783 then sold it to Nathaniel Tomlinson 25 Jun 1796

18 Aug 1796 .. State Trevillion, represented by his father, Richard Trevillion, bought 100 arpents on Fairchild's creek.

15 May 1784 Nath. Tomlinson & John Lusk of their own free will with only motives of freindship for Richard Trevillion, planter, become liable and responsible for said Richard to his excellency the Commandant of the post, Don Phillip Trevino, to the end that he may be liberated from the Fort of this Post, where he is now confined.
etc...etc

20 Aug 1792 Don Manuel Garcia de Texada represents that Richard Trevillion owes him $303. for hire of negros as will appear in his notes, and asks that Trevillion be ordered to make payment. ...(some other legal doing to long to do here and now the clincher) Richard Trevillian, having been twice summoned before your Excellency to answer the debt due Manuel Texasa asks that an allowance be mad tothe petitioner for the inconvenience of having maintained and take care of the said Manuel Texasda's family, being an expense and trouble that few in your petitioners ciercumstances could bear wihtout any compenstaion, as his whole family has been , for day and weeks together, preventing from attending their own business by attending to Manuel Texada's wife in a long fit of illness when left at your petitioners house by said Texada and taken care of by his desire. (NOTE: I understand that one of Richard's daughter married Texada BOB SHUMWAY can you add a little something about this) There is alot more on this lawsuit ..

On page 219, Richard Trevillion and his wife, Patsy Trevillion, on oath, declared that bout 12 or 13 years ago they knew Winnie Ryan in the State of North Carolina. This was on on 25 Jun 1794 .. tso that puts the Trevillions in North Carolina in 1782?

20 Mar 1804 states that Martha and heirs of Richard Trevillion, a Spanish patentee. She calimed 640 acres on water of Fairchild's creek in Jefferson Co. .. He occupied it from Jan 1795 to his death in 1800.

There is Much Much more in this book about the Trevillions! ! !
